

Parish Information

Regarding Communion: If you believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament and have been prepared for reception, you are invited to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion is placed on the tongue. If you have any questions regarding Communion (or blessings), or would like to inquire about membership or envelopes, please ask Fr. John or call the rectory number listed on the front.

Restrooms are located in the Parish Hall.

School of Christian Living: Following the 10:30 Mass, Labor Day to Memorial Day.

Marriage Arrangements: Should be made at least six months in advance; at least one year for non-parishioners.

Baptism Arrangements: Should be made at least two weeks prior to the ceremony, except in emergencies.

Please contact the rectory immediately for any emergencies, hospitalizations, sickness or death. Due to the new HIPAA laws, we have no way of finding out if you are in the hospital unless a family member notifies the rectory. We highly encourage this practice.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Is 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me
a well-trained tongue,
that I might know how to speak to the weary
a word that will rouse them.

Morning after morning
he opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.

I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

St. Martius, Abbot
April 13

The memory of St. Martius or Mars, abbot of Clermont in the Auvergne, has been preserved by St. Gregory of Tours, whose father when a boy had been cured by him of a fever. From early youth, Martius had resolved to give himself to God, and upon attaining manhood he retired from the world to lead the solitary life; he hewed himself a hermitage in the mountain side and carved the stone bed upon which he lay. His sanctity and spiritual gifts attracted disciples who gradually formed themselves into a community, whose time was divided between prayer and the cultivation of the soil, which they converted from a desert into a flourishing garden. St. Gregory of Tours tells the following anecdote. One night a thief broke into the monastery enclosure and set about rifling its apples, onions, garlic and herbs. When he had collected as much as he could carry, he attempted to depart, but was unable to find his way out in the dark. He therefore lay down on the ground to await the daylight. In the meantime Abbot Martius in his cell was fully aware of all that had happened. At the break of dawn, he summoned the prior and told him to go into the garden and release a bull which had found its way in. "Do not hurt him" he added, "and let him have all he wants, for it is written, 'Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out thy corn!' " The prior went forth and came upon the thief, who started up on seeing him, threw down his booty and attempted to escape. He was, however, caught by the briars. The monk smilingly released and reassured him. Then, after picking up the scattered spoil, he led the culprit to the gate where he laid the pack upon the man's shoulders saying, "Go in peace, and give up your evil ways". St. Martius lived to the age of ninety, and his tomb was the scene of many miracles.

*All that we know concerning St. Mars is found in the Vitae Patrum of St. Gregory of Tours, ch. xiv; and see Acta Sanctorum, April, vol. ii.*

Psalm Response

My God, My God, why have You abandoned me? (Ps. 22)

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians

Phil 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
something to be grasped.
Rather, he emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness;
and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name
which is above every name,
that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A Note From the Pastor!

Today we begin Holy Week with the Palm Sunday liturgy. This week has, without a doubt, the most beautiful and moving liturgies of the entire year. If you have never attended all of them in sequence, or if it has been a long time, make this year your year. On Good Friday, employers are required by federal law to allow you time to attend religious services... take advantage of this and make this Holy Week extra special by entering deeply into the Passion of Our Lord, Jesus Christ!

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
