A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 5:12-16

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

Rev. 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19

I, John, your brother, who share with you the distress, the kingdom, and the endurance we have in Jesus, found myself on the island called Patmos because I proclaimed God's word and gave testimony to Jesus. I was caught up in spirit on the Lord's day and heard behind me a voice as loud as a trumpet, which said, "Write on a scroll what you see." Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and when I turned, I

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Second Sunday of the Easter Season, and as you would expect, the Gospel reading today is related to the Resurrection of Christ, or more precisely, the appearance of Jesus post Resurrection. As I've probably mentioned before, the Deacons of the Western Diocese meet twice a week –Monday and Friday usually- to pray together, and discuss topics of interest. We got onto slightly strange topic Monday night, and it had to do with, not the death of Christ and His resurrection, but His birth. And along with that, we tried to figure out just when Jesus was born, when His ministry started, the age of St. John the Apostle, when was he born, and the fact that he was the only Apostle to die a natural death at the age of 90 plus. After a great deal of spirited discussion, nothing was settled to all our satisfaction, except the death of John the Apostle. Sure would have been nice if we had the birth certificates for all, which of course did not exist.

Liz got over to the church on Monday, and started out on the groundskeeping for this year, beginning with the flower garden in the front of the church. She got three of four bags of clippings from the knockout roses, and whatever else she worked on (I did not help, but I shall carry the bags out on Wednesday for pickup). {period should be Outside the parentheses?} My English teacher(s) must be cringing and shaking their heads.

I shall be spraying for weeds again, this year the stuff I got is supposed to last all year. I'll believe it when I see it.

saw seven gold lampstands and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, wearing an ankle-length robe, with a gold sash around his chest. When I caught sight of him, I fell down at his feet as though dead. He touched me with his right hand and said, “Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, the one who lives. Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. I hold the keys to death and the netherworld. Write down, therefore, what you have seen, and what is happening, and what will happen afterwards.”

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

Jn 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.” Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.” Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.” Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

Today we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in the Octave of Easter, or Low Sunday. Our Gospel tells us the story of the Apostle Thomas, who doubted that Christ had risen from the dead until he saw with his own eyes. Sometimes it can be hard for us to have faith... we want proof. However, Jesus asks us to 'walk by faith, and not by sight.' We need to have faith that the Son of God will give us what He promised if we follow Him and listen to Him.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
