A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 2:14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. "My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Deacon's Dialogue
Deacon Richard Kasprzak

It has been a very rough week. While in Florida, Liz noticed that a cut on her nose did not heal like a cut normally would, so she made an appointment with a dermatologist upon our return. She kept the appointment, and after the examination, she was told that a cancer had recurred. An appointment was made for the following Monday and we went there to the surgery early in the morning. It was a rough day, as she spent over 11 hours on the table while the surgeries were performed. There were seven of them. She had an appointment for the next day Tuesday at the Plastic Surgery Department, and at 9 A.M., we began the process. Hours of prep, then 3 hours with the surgeon in the O.R. We went home finally sometime after 8 in the evening.

I used to be considered a petty tough guy. I've had my ribs broken twice, had my cheek re-arranged, and just before we flew to Hawaii, I had my nose broken. We flew to Hawaii, and with me wearing a silver cast on my nose, to keep it straight for some days.

But what my wife went through makes any of my travails only incidents, not worth mentioning. I am honored to have Elizabeth as my wife. The trip she now faces is daunting, and I shall help all I can.

A half century of living should put a good deal into a woman's face besides a few wrinkles and some unwelcome folds around the chin.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. Luke

Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Laura Pearce, friend of the Parish.

Corn and Crab Cakes

2 (6 oz) cans crab meat, drained
1 (8.25oz) can creamed corn
1/2 tsp hot sauce (optional, it's totally delicious with or without)
2 green onions, chopped
1 1/2 cups bread crumbs, divided
3-4 tbsp vegetable or canola oil

Directions:

Mix crabmeat, corn, hot sauce, scallions and 3/4 cup bread crumbs in a medium mixing bowl until well blended.
Spread the remaining breadcrumbs on a plate and divide the crab mixture into 8 patties. Roll each patty in bread crumbs until the surface coated.
Heat oil in a large non-stick frying pan over medium-high heat. When the oil is hot, brown the crab cakes on both sides, about 4 minutes per side.
