A Reading from the 1st Book of Kings

1 Kng 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians.

Eph 4:30-5:2

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us

Deacon's Dialogue
By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Let me once again send Liz and mine condolences to the family of Amy Howes. Yesterday, Tuesday, I saw a tremendous outpouring of love. This speaks wonderfully about the qualities inherent in the young woman to whom we said goodbye, as she went into the keeping of Our Lord.

As I've mentioned before, this service was the third that we have attended in the last twelve months, and all three were of persons whom I consider as going before their time. Now we know that there is only one being who decides when the time of leaving this earthly venue comes, but in our daily live experiences, we would think that a child leaving before the parent is much too early. We read from the Bible that even Christ was sorrowful for the death of a child, as He raised from death the daughter of Jairus, and the widow's son.

Two years ago, Deacon Gail Lazenby from Belleview Florida and myself started meeting on Skype twice weekly, where we discuss events, happenings and do our daily prayers together. During this last year, we have picked up two more Deacons, and lost one of them to ordination to the priesthood. Fr. David Rowinski in Chicago and Deacon Thomas Opala in Wisconsin.

My grandson David graduated from Twelfth grade, and we shall be having the party for him here at our place on Saturday. The celebrations of graduation seem to stretch out all summer, as David has several more to go to this summer besides his. He shall be going to school part time, and working to pay for his education. He is a very good kid.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

John 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven,” and they said, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’” Jesus answered and said to them, “Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor

I hope that everyone participated in the elections this past Tuesday. It is important for us as citizens... and even more so as National Catholics... to be informed and active voters. With the midterm General Election coming up in November, we need to begin now to educate ourselves on the positions of those vying to attain the various positions in government at the State and Local levels, and do our part to support those who most closely share our values and the values of our beloved Church.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
