John or call the rectory number listed on the front.

A Reading from the Book of Proverbs

Prov 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven columns; she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine, yes, she has spread her table. She has sent out her maidens; she calls from the heights out over the city: "Let whoever is simple turn in here; To the one who lacks understanding, she says, Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed! Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. (Ps. 34)

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians.

Eph 5:15-20

Brothers and sisters: Watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord. And do not get drunk on wine, in which lies debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue
By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Here it is Monday the 13th, and I am starting this weeks' column. This last weekend was really busy, with David's graduation party being held here, and it was nicely done, and all without input from yours truly. With all the females in my household, no one pays much attention to me anyway. At least now, one of my dogs is a boy.

We are again heading North, got to get everything ready for winter storage. (From the Deacon's wife: that's news to me. I'm going up north to do what I always do: I.E. rest, read, swim, relax.. It's midsummer for goodness sake!!) Just seems like you get stuff out in the spring, get up North and use the stuff a few times, then go ahead and store it away so that next year you can dig it out again and get it ready for a few more uses. I enjoy fishing, but my rods have not even been cleaned and oiled this year. Since we shall be there until Friday, for sure I'll cast out at least a few times. Check out the lawn mower, and cut access to the electric feed to the trailer. Work out the new wiring I shall have to run, and make sure it is safe. A lot of what I do is what I learned in the Army.

Mentioning the Army, brings to mind something that is beginning to nag at me. Growing up in the fifty's, as a boy, you naturally expected to be in the military service, be it Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, or Coast Guard. Out of the five boys in the family, four of us were military. Among the kids and grandkids, there is just one, and it is a girl. Josie Kasprzak, my nephew's daughter, joined the Ohio National Guard, and she is the sole representative of our family in the military

(You all can guess who checks this column)

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowds: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor

The time is coming for registration for Sunday School for the new school year. Next Sunday, I will have forms available for registration. This will be for School of Christian Living, as well as First Communion and Confirmation classes. Please come prepared with how many registration forms you will need.

In the course of living, we can sometimes become discouraged. However, remember that Christ suffered long before us and much more than us. Therefore He will never abandon us, especially if we don't abandon Him!

Have a blessed week!
