Entrance Hymn

V. To You we owe our hymn of praise, O God on Zion; To You our vows must be fulfilled, You Who hear our prayers. To You all flesh must come with its burden of wicked deeds

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 66:18-21

Thus says the LORD: I know their works and their thoughts, and I come to gather nations of every language; they shall come and see my glory. I will set a sign among them; from them I will send fugitives to the nations: to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Mosoch, Tubal and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have never heard of my fame, or seen my glory; and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations. They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots, in carts, upon mules and dromedaries, to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their offering to the house of the LORD in clean vessels. Some of these I will take as priests and Levites, says the LORD.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

V. Praise the Lord, all you nations! Give glory, all you peoples!

Heb 12:5-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters, You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges." En-

Deacon's Dialogue

Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

"Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done." As we all know, our time on earth is temporary, much as most-if not all - of us tend to forget, myself included. We are born, raised by our parents, go to school, where we first gain our away from our families experience. I remember a lot from school, even from grade school. High school, there are a lot more memories, and the thought that one day I no longer would be here did not enter my mind. I joined the Army, and not even then did I ever think about getting older.

I think most of us have gone through basically the same life experience. Of course there were accidents, and occasionally someone did get sick and pass on, but rarely did the thought of our existence on earth being temporary cross my mind, as I am sure all of us felt basically the same way.

Thy kingdom come was just a phrase that we ran across upon the occasion that we prayed, be it in the church, the classroom at St. Andrew High School. Or saying penance after confession. I remember the first real time that these words meaning came to me. I was married, and working, and I had to fill out life insurance forms at work. I did think about it then but to me, it was not a very likely scenario, just a formality. It is not, Christ's words are true and very meaningful. T B C....

dure your trials as “discipline”; God treats you as sons. For what “son” is there whom his father does not discipline? At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it. So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed.

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. I am the gate. Whoever enters through Me will be saved.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 13:22-30

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few people be saved?” He answered them, “Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, ‘Lord, open the door for us.’ He will say to you in reply, ‘I do not know where you are from. And you will say, ‘We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.’ Then he will say to you, ‘I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!’ And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out. And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

“Even as he would be guilty of falsehood who would, in the name of another person, proffer things that are not committed to him, so too does a man incur the guilt of falsehood who, on the part of the Church, gives worship to God contrary to the manner established by the Church or divine authority, and according to ecclesiastical custom.” ~Thomas Aquinas

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Fr. John:

Chicken Cordon Bleu Casserole

Ingredients (N.B. Substitutions of different brands will degrade the taste of the final product):

- 2 Boxes Stove Top Chicken Stuffing
- 1 can Campbell's Cream of Mushroom soup
- 1/2 can Campbell's Golden Mushroom soup
- 1 8 oz. package diced ham
- 2 1/2 lb. boneless, skinless chicken breasts or thighs
- 1 8 oz. package sliced Swiss Cheese
- 1 8 oz. package sliced Muenster Cheese
- 1 6 oz. package French's French Fried Onions

Preheat oven to 425. Cut chicken into cubes (the smaller the better.) Cook in a large rimmed pan with enough water to keep the chicken from sticking. Cover and cook until done (about 15 min.) on Medium-High. While the chicken is cooking, prepare the stuffing according to the directions on box. Grease a 9"x13" pan. Create a layer of stuffing on the bottom of the pan (using your hands, wet, to smooth it out.) Cover with an entire layer of Swiss cheese. Strain the cooked chicken, place in a large bowl, and mix together with Cream of Mushroom and Golden Mushroom soups, ham, and 1/2 of the onions. Mix well and place on the Swiss Cheese layer using a spatula. Smooth and cover with a layer of Muenster Cheese. Sprinkle Salt and Pepper over the top. Place in oven for 20 minutes. Remove and place remaining onions on top, bake for 5 minutes. Let set for 5 minutes, cut and enjoy.
