A Reading from the Book of Joshua

Josh 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the LORD, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD for the service of other gods. For it was the LORD, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. What is the Almighty that we should serve Him? And what gain shall we have if we pray to Him?

R. "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts!" they cried one to the other. "All the earth is filled with His glory!"

Deacon's Dialogue
By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I did not get to do what I needed, as I got rained out the first full day. Liz worked inside, I just got a lot of rest, doing what husbands are good at. The next day, it was still wet outside for the morning, and we stayed inside while the day got a little better. My tractor is still not running, but at least I know why. The fuel is not getting to the carb, so I shall pull the fuel tank and find out why.

Monday night, I am supposed to meet online with the other Deacons, so I got my computer and went to the clubhouse to get online. We do not have cable or internet up North, and our area is so devoid of signal towers, that even phone is very shaky. Anyhow, I got the computer plugged in, and got Skype up. After trying to get connected, the computer said that the signal was so degraded that no connection was possible. So for the future, I shall have to go to the Big Boy, order coffee(Decaf) and strawberry pie and go online there. Darn, I might even have to bring the wife.

There are some beautiful lakes in Clare County, and we drove around for a bit and scanned them. We did find a boat rental place on one lake, so we shall remember for next year, and try Lake George for some fishing.

September is almost here, the days are just speeding by. Before we know it, Florida will be in sight. Oh well, we all have to suffer the winter heat in the lower fifties sometime.

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians.

Eph 5:21-32

Brothers and sisters: Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. For the husband is head of his wife just as Christ is head of the church, he himself the savior of the body. As the church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

There is a Deacon Service today since my cousin, Bruce Drudge, died suddenly this past Tuesday. The funeral is scheduled for today, so Bishop Bilinski has allowed Deacon Kasprzak to do the service today.

Let us appreciate each and every minute we have on this earth, for we never know when any moment will be our last.

Have a blessed week!
