Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Traditional Rite p. 15

Penitential Rite p. 16

V. For I will sing to the Lord's renown. Oh, proclaim the greatness of our God!

R. The Rock— how faultless are His deeds, how right all His ways! A faithful God, without deceit, how just and upright He is!

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 22:15, 19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace: "I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station. On that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut; when he shuts, no one shall open. I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. Truly, Who is God except the Lord? Who but our God is the Rock? This God who girded me with might, kept my way unerring.

R. The Lord lives! Blessed be my Rock! Exalted be my God, my Savior!

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Romans 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor? Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid? For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue

By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Wednesday night, and I think I am going to live, after all. Nine days with five people, even though they are all mine, can make for a little family overload. But... a great time was had by all... lots of laughter, giggles, and talk.

The drive to Florida was a shock to some, because we did not stop for the night. We had four drivers, and we got started late, so I figured we might as well drive straight through. My daughter, Veronica, did some of the driving, and my grandson, David, did a good chunk of it also. I did most of the night driving, and Liz helped out a lot. (Of course I did.) We got to Florida, and all took a good nap.

What did we do.? We hit the beach three times, and it was on the beach-New Smyrna- that you could drive onto. It took a while for the kids to get in, but once in, no one wanted to get out of the ocean – which was like bathwater. Paige, Veronica and David were the water sprites, and the waves were perfect for bodysurfing, especially with a float. I did not go into the water, as I feared for my knees..

Veronica and David and Paige went to Universal Orlando, and came back broke. Back to the beach the next day. The following day everyone but myself went to the Space Center. I was too tired to go, and with my knees, the walking would have been too much. It was a brilliantly sunny day with a temp of 91...(real feel....about 98)

Our grandson David, in particular, loved the Space Center. Liz likes to go there every year. There is so much that is new and exciting happening at the Kennedy Space Center! The big push is the Trip to Mars. Two existing exhibits never cease to amaze. The Saturn Apollo exhibit; and the Space Shuttle Atlantis. The first thing that one sees in the Saturn exhibit are the six exhaust engines. They are so big..... people just stare at them with their mouths open. We learned that the rocket which will go to Mars is going to be the biggest rocket ever made .

Saturday we got ready for the trip home; then spent the afternoon at the beach. Sunday we went to St. Mary's by the Sea. It was so nice to visit with the parishioners and Fr. Berry. We also hear that the first baby to be born there is on the way, and the couple having the blessed event were also married at St. Mary's by Father Berry.

On Monday, we stopped..... somewhere in the foothills of Tennessee... to view the Eclipse. We had our safety glasses of course...and were rewarded with a perfect view.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew

Matthew 16:13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.
