A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 2:1-5

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the LORD's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; one nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God..

Psalm

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord. (Ps. 122)

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Romans 13:11-14

Brothers and sisters: You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves properly as in the day, not in orgies and drunk-

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I am kind of Blue, seeing as how this is the last month of 2019. It also happens to be the first day of Advent, and the first day that we change our readings. Cycle 'C' ended Saturday, and we go to Cycle 'A', which is how it all starts. You will also notice, the Gloria will not be heard for quite a while. If you truly will miss it, come to church next Tuesday, and your blue will disappear. Also, mark my words as St. Mathew takes over for a time.

Friday was the day we made fillings for pierogi, and this week we need all the help we can get to assemble the fillings with the rolled dough, and boil them till they float. This is always a fun time, meet old friends, make new friends, and chow down on some good old fashioned food for lunch. I'm not sure what we'll have, but seeing how its after Thanksgiving, Turkey would probably be on the menu. Maybe Miss Sue would graciously make some of her Chicken soup with that great flavor. And Miss Donna makes a really tasty Lentil soup, even though this is still Advent and not Lent.

Leaves, leaves, and more leaves. I realize that we need trees to make oxygen for us, but it would be nice if the leaves would just fold up and go to sleep for the winter. I did find that if I used my mower to chop the leaves really fine (mulch), they just about disappear. Much easier than raking, and I guess better for the lawn, as they turn to fertilizer.

GREAT. Getting ready to send dialogue, the wind came up. More, more leaves. SIGH

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. My soul rests in God alone, from Whom comes my salvation.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: “As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

Today we begin the new Liturgical Year of 2020. Let us take this opportunity to re-new our commitment to living as Christ wants us to.

Have a blessed week!
