A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Jer 31:10-14

Hear the word of the LORD, you nations, proclaim it on distant coasts, and say: The One who scattered Israel, now gathers them; he guards them as a shepherd his flock. The LORD shall ransom Jacob, he shall redeem him from a hand too strong for him. Shouting, they shall mount the heights of Zion, they shall come streaming to the LORD's blessings: The grain, the wine, and the oil, flocks of sheep and cattle; They themselves shall be like watered gardens, never again neglected. Then young women shall make merry and dance, young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into joy, I will show them compassion and have them rejoice after their sorrows. I will lavish choice portions on the priests, and my people shall be filled with my blessings— oracle of the LORD.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

St. Sabinus and Companions
December 30

When the cruel edicts of Diocletian and Maximin Hercules were published against the Christians in the year 303, it required more than ordinary force in the bishops and clergy, to encourage the people to undergo martyrdom rather than apostatize. All were forbidden even to draw water or grind wheat, if they would not first incense idols placed for that purpose in the markets and on street corners.

According to the legend, Sabinus, claimed as a bishop by several Italian cities, and several of his clergy were arrested; Venustian, the governor of Etruria, had them before him and offered for the veneration of Sabinus a small statue of Jupiter. The bishop threw it contemptuously to the ground and broke it, whereupon Venustian ordered the hands of Sabinus cut off. His two deacons, Marcellus and Exsuperantius, also made a confession of faith, and were scourged and racked, under which torments they both died. Sabinus was taken back to prison and the bodies of his two deacons were buried at Assisi.

Saint Sabinus was aided there by a Christian widow of rank, who brought her blind nephew to him there to be cured. Fifteen prisoners who witnessed this splendid miracle were converted to the Faith.

The prefect left the bishop in peace for a month, because he himself was suffering from a painful eye ailment. He heard of the miracle and came to the bishop in prison with his wife and two sons, to ask him for help in his affliction. Saint Sabinus answered that if Venustianus would believe in Jesus Christ and be baptized with his wife and children, he would obtain that grace for him. The officer consented, they were baptized, and he threw into the river the pieces of his broken statue. Soon all the new converts gave their lives for having confessed the Gospel, sentenced by Lucius, whom Maximus Hercules sent to Spoleto after hearing of their decision, to judge and condemn them.

St. Sabinus was beaten to death, and buried. St. Gregory the Great speaks of a chapel built in his honour near Fermo, for which he asks relics of the martyr from Chrysanthus, bishop of Spoleto. These martyrs are remembered today in the Roman Martyrology. He was a man of so great learning and holiness that St. Ambrose used to submit his writing to him for criticism and approval before publication.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 2:15-20

When the angels went away from them to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go, then, to Bethlehem to see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went in haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast in-to hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor

Merry Christmas! We are still in the Octave of Christmas and we are celebrating the PNCC Solemnity of Humble Shepherds today. It was the Shepherds who first saw the Savior as He entered the earth, after Mary and Joseph. The King first was made known to the lowliest among us. Let us rejoice that so great a Savior has been born unto us!

Have a blessed week!

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Fr. John Cramer

Three Envelope Roast

- 1 2.5-3 lb. Beef Roast (Bottom Round, Chuck, etc...)
- 1 Packet Hidden Valley Ranch Dressing (dry)
- 1 Packet Italian Dressing (dry)
- 1 Packet Brown Gravy Mix (dry)

In a large measuring cup, mix two cups of water and the contents of the three packets. Stir until completely dissolved. Place roast in Crock Pot. Pour mixture on top of roast. Set on low for eight hours (or high for four hours if pressed for time). Roast will fall apart and you have a wonderful sauce for it as well. Serve with mashed potatoes.
