Sexagesima Sunday
Contemporary Rite p. 63
Penitential Rite, p. 66

V. My brothers [and sisters], show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Jesus Christ.

R. But if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

V. Glory Be...

R. As it was in the beginning...

A Reading from the Book of Leviticus.

Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18

The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy. "You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart. Though you may have to reprove your fellow citizen, do not incur sin because of him. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

The Lord is kind and merciful. (Psalm 103)

A reading from the First letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 3:16-23

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy. Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you considers himself wise in this age, let him become a fool, so as to become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God, for it is written: God catches the wise in their own ruses, and again: The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. So let no one boast about human beings, for everything belongs to you, Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or the present or the future: all belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Here it is Monday night, and we are resting after a well driven Sunday and Saturday, going to church both days, and preaching both services. I must say, last Sunday's Gospel was one of the hardest for me to preach, there is so much in there. I am very grateful Fr. Mark gave me the opportunity to preach, and I hope I did a decent job. As I've said before, the congregation here at St. Paul is beautiful, and very welcoming. Liz and I really feel like we belong here, and it is a great feeling. It is also very nice to meet people who know and or belong to our parishes in Michigan, and are what are called snowbirds here in Florida.

It's Tuesday, and we just got back from the ocean. The day was perfect, 85 degrees, with a breeze to keep it nice. Looking out at the ocean, brought to mind the "Salt of the Earth" Gospel. Since the ocean is salt water. All the creatures of the ocean depend upon the salt water, as most would die in fresh water. Even with the salt in the water, it takes the sun to keep it full of life, oxygen and food. Here on earth, it takes the salt of the earth to keep things running, but it is the Son who provides us with what we need to make this world one we can live in.

We have just a couple of weeks left here, they have been very nice (could have been warmer), and we shall probably leave for home right after Ash Wednesday. Still discussing the route home, we know them all, probably depends upon the weather. I would like to take 95 part way, that way we can do a quick visit to the ocean en route. Like I say, I all depends upon the weather. We heard from David, February was a sellout. Great work. They should all be as good.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Matthew 5:38-48

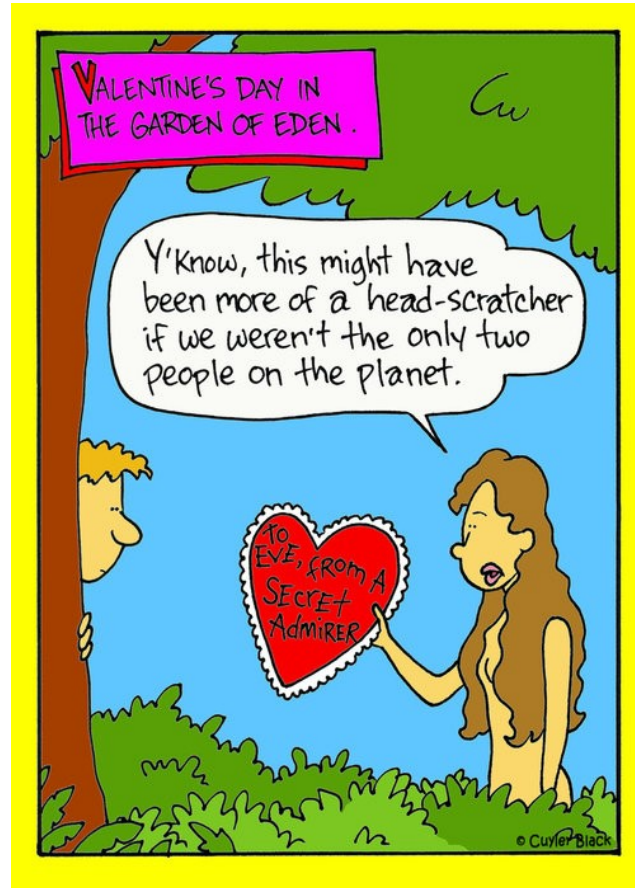

Jesus said to his disciples: "You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well. If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow. "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have? Do not the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet your brothers only, what is unusual about that? Do not the pagans do the same? So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

We continue the celebration of the Pre-Lenten season today with Sexagesima Sunday. Please take some time to begin to plan how you will uphold the three pillars of Lent this year— Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
