Quinquagesima Sunday
Traditional Rite p. 15
Hymn of Faith p. 13 vv. 1 & 4
Penitential Rite, p. 16

V. I cry aloud to God, cry to God to hear me.

R. On the day of my distress I sought the Lord; by night my hands are raised unceasingly; I refuse to be consoled.

V. Glory Be...

R. As it was in the beginning...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 49:14-15

Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me; my LORD has forgotten me." Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. For a brief moment, I abandoned you, but with great tenderness I will take you back.

R. In an outburst of wrath, for a moment I hid my face from you; But with enduring love I take pity on you, says the Lord, your redeemer.

A reading from the First letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. It does not concern me in the least that I be judged by you or any human tribunal; I do not even pass judgment on myself; I am not conscious of anything against me, but I do not thereby stand acquitted; the one who judges me is the Lord. Therefore do not make any judgment before the appointed time, until the Lord comes, for he will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will manifest the motives of our hearts, and then everyone will receive praise from God.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

It's our last full week here in sunny Florida, as Ash Wednesday is next week, and we shall be packing up for the trip home. It has been a great time, and we shall be hitting the road either Thursday or Friday, depending on the weather. The future forecast is calling for storms, but it does not say how far North the bad weather will progress. I don't mind driving in the rain so much, but if the snow and ice precede us, we may adjust the trip timing somewhat. Funny, no matter how nice and beautiful it is here, it is always nice to get back home, get back to the home church, our mutts. ...and our cat.

I shall have the honor of preaching once again this coming Sunday, and I have been looking over the readings and the Gospel for the day. One of the hardest things for me is to decide the direction that my homily will take. There are so many ways to preach upon the word of Christ, the direction to take, that I have a tough time making up my mind. One of the helps for me is to take a look at some of the commentaries on the particular Gospel, and take a hint that appeals to me. One is a child's view of the teachings and that appeals to me somewhat, seeing that my wife thinks I still have not grown up.

Looking back at my life, I see many times that a person stepped in, and helped out in a way that kept me on track to become the person I am. I bet that if most if not all of us, can get to points in life that brought us to where we are. Not only persons, but happenings that either changed or reinforced who we were. Guidance from above, just our free will making decisions.

KNOWLEDGE IS KNOWING WHAT TO SAY. WISDOM IS KNOWING WHEN TO SAY IT. ~ANONYMOUS

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. The word of God is living and effective; discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Matthew 6:24-34

Jesus said to his disciples: "No one can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? Why are you anxious about clothes? Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith? So do not worry and say, 'What are we to eat?' or 'What are we to drink?' or 'What are we to wear?' All these things the pagans seek. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides. Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

Lent begins this week with Ash Wednesday. This year we will offer 3 Masses for your convenience: 8:30 AM, Noon, and 5:30 PM. Also, please consider your Lenten journey to get closer to Christ.

Have a blessed week!
