A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

In those days, Saul went down to the desert of Ziph with three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph. So David and Abishai went among Saul's soldiers by night and found Saul lying asleep within the barricade, with his spear thrust into the ground at his head and Abner and his men sleeping around him. Abishai whispered to David: “God has delivered your enemy into your grasp this day. Let me nail him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I will not need a second thrust!” But David said to Abishai, “Do not harm him, for who can lay hands on the LORD's anointed and remain unpunished. So David took the spear and the water jug from their place at Saul's head, and they got away without anyone's seeing or knowing or awakening. All remained asleep, because the LORD had put them into a deep slumber. Going across to an opposite slope, David stood on a remote hilltop at a great distance from Abner, son of Ner, and the troops. He said: “Here is the king's spear. Let an attendant come over to get it. The LORD will reward each man for his justice and faithfulness. Today, though the LORD delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the LORD's anointed.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. From the brink of Sheol I call; my heart grows faint. Raise me up, set me on a rock, for You are my refuge, a tower of strength against the foe.

R. [You] preserved me from my enemies, truly You have exalted me above my adversaries, from the violent You have rescued me.

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I am really thankful for the prayers that were offered on my behalf, and for the cards wishing me a speedy recovery. Liz and I appreciate them very much. I also have to thank my wife for all she does, without her help I would still be in pain. Women truly are wonderful.

I had planned to be back in church for the 17th, but that is not how it worked out. I woke up about 2 in the morning. I was in a lot of pain, took some of my pain pills, and went back to sleep. A side effect of those pills is that you sleep really well, which I did. Funny thing, it was not my knee that hurt so bad, but my back. I must have sprained something during my rehab on Tuesday, and that is what woke me up. My left leg is still sore, but I am walking better now, and it should keep getting better as I go through the recovery process. If the doctor OKs it, we shall leave for Florida about March 12, but not for a long visit.

St. Mark really goes through a lot of rules for living a good life, and how easy it is to forget all that we have really comes from God. Of course we want to be nice to people who are nice to us, but it is hard to always be nice, even to people who may annoy us in some way. I have a very bad habit that gets pointed out to me, and it has to do with patience, especially while driving. I am not the world's best driver, but in my mind, I often come close. I try to overlook other people's errors, but truly, I have to remind myself that the person behind me may have thoughts about how my driving compares to his. To me, the last line from St. Luke is especially telling.

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Cor 15:45-49

Brothers and sisters: It is written, The first man, Adam, became a living being, the last Adam a life-giving spirit. But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven. As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Gospel Acclamation

V. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

V. But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples: “To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. “Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast in to hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

Today we continue our preparation for Lent with Sexagesima Sunday. Hopefully we have began making plans on how we are going to observe the Great Lent with regard to addressing specific things in our own lives that we would like to ask Jesus' help to change in us, and making a road map as to how it will be put into action on Ash Wednesday.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Laura Pearce, friend of the Parish.

Broccoli and Mushroom Quiche

1 (9 inch) pie crust	3 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk	1 tbsp flour
1/2 cup onion, chopped	1/2 cup mushrooms, sliced
1/2 cup broccoli, chopped	1/4 cup shredded Swiss cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 450 degrees F. Line pie pan with pie crust, and place a double layer of tin foil over the crust (it always seems like I never have tin foil, so I usually end up skipping this step and just baking the crust for about 10 minutes on its own. This works fine, but the crust ends up puffing up quite a bit, so if you have the tin foil, definitely put in the extra effort here). Bake in the preheated oven for 5 minutes, and then remove foil. Continue baking until crust begins to set, about 5 to 7 minutes; remove from oven. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degrees F
2. In a mixing bowl, beat eggs with milk and flour. Stir in onion, mushrooms, broccoli, and swiss cheese. Season with salt and pepper. Pour mixture into hot crust.
3. Bake quiche at 350 degrees F for 45 minutes to one hour. The quiche is done when knife inserted in center comes out clean.
