A Reading from the Book of Sirach.

Sirach 3:3-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard. Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother. My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins —a house raised in justice to you.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways. (Psalm 128)

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Colossians.

Colossians 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfec-

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

To all, A Blessed, Healthy and Happy New Year. Liz and I are recovering from all the festivities, as mild as they were. We had family over, though not all of them, as the kids have their own idea of a good time. We ate well, played cards, and killed off a few bottles of light wine. Then the big moment came, watching the big ball come down, and counting off the final seconds, and the traditional toast. STO LAT, HAPPY NEW YEAR.

As usual, my computer is misbehaving, not allowing me to print out the Sunday readings and Gospel. I tried three times, then said the heck with it. Usually, it is only with spelling errors that the computer misbehaves, but I guess it's just reminding me 'who's the boss.' Today is the solemnity of the 'Holy Family', which is within the PNCC, a special day. As you remember from the Gospel reading, King Herod was not too happy when he found out another king had been born, and being kind of naughty, decided to eliminate any challenger to the throne. Saint Joseph took his wife and baby to Egypt for safety, according to scripture writing. While they were gone, Herod killed all children in his territory to the age of two. When it was safe, Herod being dead, the Holy Family returned.

Angels were the ones who participated, from announcing his mother's pregnancy, to his birth, keeping him safe from Herod. We all have guardian Angels, who also watch over us. Can you remember any time your angel tried to help you? Interesting.

If you have knowledge, let others light their candles at it. ~THOMAS FULLER

tion. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and avoid any bitterness toward them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

When the magi had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, Out of Egypt I called my son. When Herod had died, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go back there. And because he had been warned in a dream, he departed for the region of Galilee. He went and dwelt in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, He shall be called a Nazorean.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

I am still taking appointments for the House Blessings. They will begin January 7, and continue through February 25. Please get with me for this annual blessing!
