R. Trust in the Lord, your God, and you will be found firm. Trust in His prophets, and you will succeed.

V. Glory be to the Father...

R. As it was in the beginning...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos

Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, “Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king’s sanctuary and a royal temple.” Amos answered Amaziah, “I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Lord let us see Your kindness, let us see Your kindness and grant us Your salvation. (Ps. 85)

Eph 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us

Deacon’s Dialogue

By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

It’s already the middle of the month, and we have begun the downslide part of the year. Just last night, I looked out and noticed that the day was a little bit shorter than it has been. So being me, I looked it all up on my tablet. Funny, it first told me why, and then told me we lose about two minutes of daylight each day. I didn’t really want to be told the why, as I already knew. The earth is tilted about 23 degrees, and that’s why we have seasons. Anyhow, we lose about two minutes per day. The converse of this is that in winter and spring, we gain those two minutes back. Back to where I wanted to start. I am a bachelor this week, with Liz and my daughter Vickie and granddaughter Paige are in North Carolina, enjoying the beach, the water and the weather there. I do enjoy Skyping with her, it’s a nice way of keeping in touch. Liz and I used to babysit the kids from Florida via Skype. Of course, they were already a little older, and it was just for a little while.

David will be here on Wednesday and Thursday, giving me a hand with the small projects that need doing. Speaking of projects, I shall try to get to the church on Wednesday, and start with the grassy weeds along the church again. The darn things grow fast, and need to be gone. Parking lot next. {done}

The Gospel of St. Mark, something a bit funny about it. There does not seem to be a nice, neat progression about it. The author jumps around a lot, with no neat transition from one point to another. Again I spent a bit of time looking it up, and remember in a previous dialogue, I mentioned that St. Mark accompanied St. Peter and transcribed St. Peter’s preaching. St. Peter preached to different congregations according to their perceived needs, and it was up to St. Mark to make an order out of those sermons. Today’s Gospel tells us that Christ sent out His Apostles on their own to spread His message, and I wonder if St. Mark accompanied St. Peter.

HAPPINESS COMES OF THE CAPACITY TO FEEL DEEPLY, TO ENJOY SIMPLY, TO THINK FREELY, TO RISK LIFE, TO BE NEEDED. ~STORM JAMESON

 Note from Fr. John: Most scholars reject the notion of the authorship of the Gospel of Mark as being from John Mark, the companion of St. Peter.

for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

This is the Word of the Lord

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick— no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor!

As our Mass intention today, we remember Rev. Edwin Phillips. I realize that Rev. Phillips can cause strong emotions on the part of some who have been here. I believe that it is important to remember those who have served and led the Parish in ordained ministry. It is easy to pray for those whom we love, not so much for those for whom we don't have overwhelming feelings for. However, it is they whom we should be praying for all the more.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John

Parish Committee Meeting

The next Parish Committee meeting will be this Tuesday, July 17, 2018 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Hall. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Clean Sweep

We need help sprucing up the parish grounds. If you have a spare few minutes, or an hour, come on out and help by pulling a few weeds, picking up sticks or trash, or anything else you may see needs to be done. A neat property is an attractive property and can help invite new people to our parish.

Second Collection

The next second collection will be for the Missionary Fund of the Western Diocese and General Church on August 5, 2018. Please be generous, as this is designed to help spread the faith in our Diocese and Nation.

Sick and Shut-Ins

This is a reminder that if you or someone you know is ill or shut-in and would like a visit or communion, you must contact Fr. John at the Rectory to request a visit. This is necessary due to privacy considerations and HIPAA regulations. Please be sure to let him know and he will arrange to visit you at the earliest possible time

Summer Vacations

As we are about half way through summer, remember that if you are on vacation, try to find a place to worship. Also, if you are gone for an extended period of time, don't forget that you can mail your contribution to the parish, or contribute in advance of your departure. We hope that you enjoy the summer and the time off, and while you're gone, we will pray for your safe travels! Have a blessed summertime!
