

Parish Information

Regarding Communion: If you believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament and have been prepared for reception, you are invited to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion is placed on the tongue. If you have any questions regarding Communion (or blessings), or would like to inquire about membership or envelopes, please ask Fr. John or call the rectory number listed on the front.

Restrooms are located in the Parish Hall.

School of Christian Living: Following the 10:30 Mass, Labor Day to Memorial Day.

Marriage Arrangements: Should be made at least six months in advance; at least one year for non-parishioners.

Baptism Arrangements: Should be made at least two weeks prior to the ceremony, except in emergencies.

Hall Rental: For information on renting the hall, call (313) 286-5130 or go to <http://www.oursaviorpncc.com/Hall-Rental.html>

Please contact the rectory immediately for any emergencies, hospitalizations, sickness or death. Due to the new HIPAA laws, we have no way of finding out if you are in the hospital unless a family member notifies the rectory. We highly encourage this practice.

Individual Confessions are heard by appointment.

Penitential Rite p. 66

V. Indeed, the Word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart.

R. And the Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us, and we saw His glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD: Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

I will praise Your name forever, my king and my God. (Psalm 145)

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters: I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

It sure is lonely here by myself, with the wife and daughter off carousing in the Cape Hatteras area of North Carolina. They left late Saturday about four PM or later, and drove straight through with a few stops for rest and gas and restroom and eating and other stuff. They were going to nap in the truck, but Vickie found a spider, and killed it, but after that, not either one of them could sleep.

Meantime, I am at home with the two dogs, the two cats, and the ten fish. The dogs are easy, just feed them and let them out to do their business. Of course, I've got to clean up after them later, but it's outside so I do not mind that so much. The cats have to have their litterboxes cleaned out daily, and that's a pain, but I managed to get it done. The second time was easier, but still a pain.

I was at All Saints on Sunday, which was pretty nice. We had about thirty or thirty five attending, and the service went very well (I thought). There were two Altar Servers, one adult and another one, a little girl of about ten. She was the crucifer, and really worked hard, having to wash my fingers before and after communion. This coming Sunday, I shall be at Temperance, which is about an hour away. I 75 is torn up. So I shall try taking Telegraph road all the way there.

I go in on Wednesday at 9 AM to Wyandotte to have my heart checked out. After that, I shall try to make it in time for Wednesday Mass.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew

Matthew 11:25-30

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear." The disciples approached him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" He said to them in reply, "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted. To anyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; from anyone who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says: You shall indeed hear but not understand, you shall indeed look but never see. Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their hearts and be converted, and I heal them. "But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear. Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. "Hear then the parable of the sower. The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart. The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away. The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Laura Pearce, friend of the Parish.

Apple Cheddar Scones

2 firm tart apples; peeled cored, and cut into chunks
1 1/2 c flour
1/2 tsp baking powder
6 tbsp unsalted butter, chilled and cut into chunks
1/2 c sharp cheddar, shredded (white is recommended, you know, for aesthetics)
1/4 c heavy cream
1/4 c sugar
1/2 tsp salt
2 eggs

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Place apple chunks in a single layer on a baking sheet and bake them for about 20 minutes; let them cool completely (I put them in a bowl in the freezer) and leave oven on.
2. Mix flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together; set aside. Place butter in the bowl along with cooled apple chunks, cheese, cream and one egg. Sprinkle flour mixture over the top and mix with an electric mixer on low speed until the dough comes together. Be careful not to over mix! (You can do this by hand as well, but make sure you chop the apples more beforehand).
3. Flour your counter top or cutting board and place the dough on top of it. Mold the dough into a 1 1/4-inch thick, 6-inch circle. Cut circle into 8 wedges. Transfer them to a baking sheet that has either been buttered or sprayed with cooking spray.
4. Beat the second egg in a small bowl with a pinch of salt. Brush the scones with egg wash and sprinkle them with a small handful of sugar. Bake until firm and golden, about 30 minutes.
