A Reading from the 2nd Book of Kings

2 Kng 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, "They shall eat and there shall be some left over." And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Eph 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue

By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Have you ever tried to reason with a computer? I just spent over an hour trying to download SKYPE onto my Toshiba computer, which I took along with me up North for a few days. Now we Deacons, along with one fellow ex-Deacon, now a priest, meet twice a week to keep up with things and to join in with common prayers. For some reason, I must have removed the SKYPE program from this computer, and naturally I tried to download it and reinstall it. So I got online, went to the proper website to get started, spent fifteen minutes trying to get the download started, and could not. I tried my passwords, which did not work. Then Microsoft put me into password reset mode, and then I noticed that I was in Elizabeth's space, not mine. So I went into my space, and started all over.

First thing I noticed that my password no longer was acknowledged. So I went to try to reset it. Unfortunately, in order to reset it, I had to go into a different mail account, which canceled my time available to reset the password. And when I did get back to the proper session, everything had timed out and I had to start all over again. So back to work. After going through the process, I still could not get back on in time, as the internet is so slow, before everything gets worked through, it all is timed out again. So I stopped, shut it all down, went back to our trailer and started the Dialogue.

Sitting here and looking out the window at the lake, it is very peaceful outside. It's a very small lake, maybe less than 20 acres. Good fishing, no gas motors allowed, just electric, sail or paddle. For some reason, it is called White Birch Lake, maybe because of the trees around it. The property is about 2000 acres, and has five or six small lakes. You see a lot of golf carts and gasoline runabouts, some cycles also. Very pretty. We shall be returning Wednesday, back to the doctor on Thursday.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

John 6:1-15

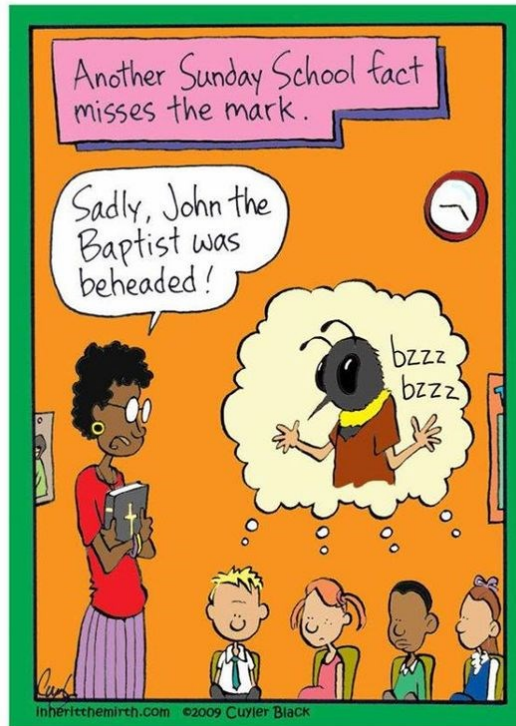

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, “Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?” He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, “Two hundred days’ wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little.” One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Jesus said, “Have the people recline.” Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, “Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted.” So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, “This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world.” Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor

We are exiting July and moving into August. The days are getting shorter, and we begin to realize that we are closer and closer to autumn and winter. The cycle of the seasons is indeed a gift from God, and we thank Him for all things in all seasons. He loves us, wants the best for us, and will never give us anything that will not bring us closer to Him.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John

Parish Committee Meeting

The next Parish Committee meeting will be this Tuesday, August 21, 2018 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Hall. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Clean Sweep

We need help sprucing up the parish grounds. If you have a spare few minutes, or an hour, come on out and help by pulling a few weeds, picking up sticks or trash, or anything else you may see needs to be done. A neat property is an attractive property and can help invite new people to our parish.

Second Collection

The next second collection will be for the Missionary Fund of the Western Diocese and General Church next Sunday, August 5, 2018. Please be generous, as this is designed to help spread the faith in our Diocese and Nation.

Weekly E-Mail

Have you been receiving our weekly e-mail? If not, please give Fr. John your name and he will add you to the list so you can keep up with all of the latest news and updates from Our Savior Parish!

Volunteer Oportunities

We are looking for volunteers to help with two specific areas. Number one, we are in need of an editor for the Spirit of Our Savior Newsletter. Since the passing of Eugene Kryzstof, Fr. John has been handling the duties, but we feel that this is better done by a parishioner. The second area we are looking for a volunteer is with an enhancement of our Social Media ministry. We are looking to expand into Twitter and Instagram, but are in need of someone who is capable of making regular postings in the voice of the Parish. Please see Fr. John if you would like to volunteer for these positions.
