A Reading from the Book of Genesis

Genesis 3:9-15

After the man, Adam, had eaten of the tree, the LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden; but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself." Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten, then, from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!" The man replied, "The woman whom you put here with me— she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it." The LORD God then asked the woman, "Why did you do such a thing?" The woman answered, "The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it." Then the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, you shall be banned from all the animals and from all the wild creatures; on your belly shall you crawl, and dirt shall you eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

What can we do, to see our Catholic Church, THE ONE that we belong to, not only survive, but to grow into something that it once was, or even greater. I know, I, who for a great part of his life, avoided any church at all, is now talking. May be it would help a bit to define just what a church is, not in the structures that we think of when talking, but about what a church truly consists off.

People. The persons who share a belief in God, and a love of God. And who share the belief as to how to show this love for God. Jesus, the third Person of the Holy Trinity, shared His body and blood with us, the Holy Catholic Church, at the Last Supper two thousand years ago. We have the Holy Mass, which allows us to continue sharing the gifts He gave us.

This is who the church consists of, us, the believers, the congregation, and the clergy. So whose responsibility is it to keep the church alive and growing? The answer, of course, is all of us, laity and clergy both. Have we lived up to this responsibility, to keep our church alive and healthy? I know, for myself, the answer is no, I have not.

I do not have the answer, but I am sure that we do. We just have to find it. Not depend upon the Bishops, the Priests, or the Deacons..... We have to solve this, or face the alternative.

the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in his presence. Everything indeed is for you, so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God. Therefore, we are not discouraged; rather, although our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal. For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus came home with his disciples. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons." Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house. Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." But he said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

A Note From the Pastor!

Today we are back into Ordinary Time, and will remain there for the rest of the Liturgical Year, which ends December 1. We begin by hearing about Adam and Eve, and Jesus explains to us who His mother, brothers and sisters are. In a sense, we as Christians are all brothers and sisters along with Jesus with God as our Father. Let us live in Christian harmony as one family in the Holy Spirit!

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
