A Reading from the Book of Exodus

Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets. Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD." Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

Deacon's Dialogue
Deacon Richard Kasprzak

Summer is here. Summer is really here, with a vengeance. It is 80 outside now (Thursday) and this weekend should be hotter than Florida. My Army buddy is here for a few days, while the wives have gone off gallivanting to Stratford, Ontario, for the plays. Shakespeare is OK, but I prefer something calmer, something that I don't have to worry about Iago or Romeo. I just worry about all the world's problems, and the fact that the older and wiser we as humans get, the dumber we seem to be. (As always, the spelling mistakes are the fault of the program, I am an excellent speller, as is common knowledge (As you see, I got it all right, except the program just wants to make me look bad.)

In July, my daughters and my wife and my grandson {GRANDSON} are all going to North Carolina for a week. I have not been for years, and do my ocean fishing in Florida, although it's been two years since I dipped a line into the salt water. Next year. Also, I shall be getting my knee replaced, first one in August, and a couple of months later, the right one, although both are bad now.

I shall be in Temperance on the 11th, my first time there with the service.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. John

John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

A Note From the Pastor!

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. This mystery as to God's life as revealed to us is a gift that we can have a personal relationship with the One God through the three Persons.

Have a blessed week!

We need everyone's help to keep the grounds looking nice, so your volunteer time is greatly appreciated. We have found that having a weekly time did not fit into people's schedules. If you need any special equipment from the garage, contact Fr. John, Deacon Richard or Suzanne Sniezek and they will open it for you.

Family Day Picnic

June 25 is the annual PNU Family Day Mass and Picnic. This year, it will be held at Holy Cross Parish in Hamtramck. Mass begins at 12:30 PM, and the festivities will commence right after. In order to accommodate this event, the Sunday Mass at Our Savior will be celebrated at 9 AM that day. Please make a note of the change, and make every effort to attend the Picnic as well!

If you have not received a newsletter, please let Fr. John know so he can provide you with one and place you on the mailing list.
