Ezekiel 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its top-most branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Happy Father's Day to all fathers, and a thank you to all fathers who have passed on to their reward.

Looking back on my life today, and more often lately as I get a bit older, the value of having a father in my life seems more and more important. My beginnings, I was truly lucky that my father saw me, and met my mom, and then got married. I have four brothers and one sister, in Michigan, Ohio and my sister in California. Our odyssey started in Poland, went to Italy, then got transferred to England, and finally ended up here in Michigan, the USA. And most of this is due to the man, Tomasz Andrzej Kasprzak who is remembered this Sunday.

I am sure that among our parishioners there are many similar stories that also would bring out the love and the work that it took for the men in our lives to raise us to be the people that we are. Even Our Lord, Jesus Christ, had upon this earth a father who took care of him from His conception, through birth, provided safety in His young years by taking Him to Egypt. Then St Joseph brought Him home to Nazareth, fed, taught and loved Him as his own, along with Mary His mother.

At this time in my life, I have two wonderful grandchildren that I am happy to see as often as possible. David is now entering the next phase of his life, starting college and working. Paige is entering 11th grade, still two years away from her graduation. God Bless all the good fathers that have raised us.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

Mk 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: “This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come.” He said, “To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.” With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor!

Have a blessed week!

Clean Sweep

We need help sprucing up the parish grounds. If you have a spare few minutes, or an hour, come on out and help by pulling a few weeds, picking up sticks or trash, or anything else you may see needs to be done. A neat property is an attractive property and can help invite new people to our parish.

Honor a Father on Father's Day

For only $25/ name you can name a father, father figure, or priest who positively touched your life. It will be printed in the upcoming God's Field. Forms are available on the Communion Rail by the hallway entrance. You can still submit names, which will then be printed in the July God's Field.

Choir Concert

On June 30, 2018, the United Choirs of the Western Diocese will be presenting a concert entitled All For Jesus. It will take place at All Saints PNCC, 5555 17 Mile Rd., Sterling Heights, MI at 6:30 PM. There will be a reception and auction to follow. Tickets are $10.00 each, and will not be sold at the door. The proceeds will benefit the National United Choirs Scholarship Fund. For tickets or more information, contact Cathy Bilinski at (248) 528-1983.
