V. God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in distress. Thus we do not fear, though earth be shaken and mountains quake to the depths of the sea, though its waters rage and foam and mountains totter at its surging.

R. For He is the living God, enduring forever; His kingdom shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall be without end.

V. Glory be to the Father...

R. As it was in the beginning...

A Reading from the Book of Job

Job 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. They cried to the Lord in their distress; from their straits He rescued them.

R. He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the billows of the sea were stilled.

A reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

St. John the Baptist
June 24 (translated to June 25)

John the Baptist was a contemporary of Christ who was known for evangelization and his baptizing of Jesus Christ.

John the Baptist was born through the intercession of God to Zachariah and Elizabeth, who was otherwise too old to bear children. According to scriptures, the Angel Gabriel visited Elizabeth and Zachariah to tell them they would have a son and that they should name him John. Zachariah was skeptical and for this he was rendered mute until the time his son was born and named John, in fulfillment of God's will.

When Elizabeth was pregnant with John, she was visited by Mary, and John leapt in her womb. This revealed to Elizabeth that the child Mary carried was to be the Son of God.

John began public ministry around 30 AD, and was known for attracting large crowds across the province of Judaea and around the Jordan River. When Jesus came to him to be baptized, John recognized him and said, "It is I who need baptism from you."

Jesus told John to baptize Him anyway, which he did, whereupon the heavens opened, and the Spirit of God was seen like a dove. The voice of God spoke, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

John instructed his followers to turn to Christ, calling Him the "Lamb of God" and these people were among the first Christians.

Following his baptism of Christ, John's popularity grew so much that he alarmed King Herod. Herod ordered him arrested and imprisoned.

John spoke with Herod on several occasions and condemned his marriage to his half-brother's wife.

This condemnation would be his downfall as King Herod promised to grant a wish to his daughter. In revenge for John the Baptist's condemnation of her mother's scandalous marriage to Herod, she asked for John's head. King Herod reluctantly obliged. John the Baptist died sometime between 33 and 36 AD.

John the Baptist's feast day is June 24, and the anniversary of his death is August 29 and is sometimes celebrated with a second feast. John the Baptist is the patron saint of Jordan, Puerto Rico, French Canada and many other places.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: “Let us cross to the other side.” Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!” The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?” They were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor!

I would like to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Adam Sniezek on their nuptials yesterday. They were married at St. Ambrose in Grosse Pointe yesterday afternoon. We wish Adam and Audrey all the best as they begin their lives together within the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony.

Have a blessed week!

Parish Committee Meeting

The next Parish Committee meeting will be July 17, 2018 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Hall. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Clean Sweep

We need help sprucing up the parish grounds. If you have a spare few minutes, or an hour, come on out and help by pulling a few weeds, picking up sticks or trash, or anything else you may see needs to be done. A neat property is an attractive property and can help invite new people to our parish.

Second Collection

The Second Collection today will once again be for the Clergy Pension Fund. Please be generous in your support for this fund. With more and more priests reaching retirement age in our Church, it is imperative that we support this fund so it will not fall away.

Honor a Father on Father's Day

For only $25/ name you can name a father, father figure, or priest who positively touched your life. It will be printed in the upcoming God's Field. Forms are available on the Communion Rail by the hallway entrance. You can still submit names, which will then be printed in a future God's Field.

Choir Concert

On June 30, 2018, the United Choirs of the Western Diocese will be presenting a concert entitled All For Jesus. It will take place at All Saints PNCC, 5555 17 Mile Rd., Sterling Heights, MI at 6:30 PM. There will be a reception and auction to follow. Tickets are $10.00 each, and will not be sold at the door. The proceeds will benefit the National United Choirs Scholarship Fund. For tickets or more information, contact Cathy Bilinski at (248) 528-1983.
