A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: "I hear the whisperings of many: "Terror on every side! Denounce! Let us denounce him!" All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.' But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion. O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Lord, in Your great love, answer me. (Psalm 69)

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Romans 5:12-15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned— for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death

Deacon's Dialogue
Deacon Richard Kasprzak

I am definitely looking forward to this Sunday's Spojnia picnic in Hamtramck (hey, I think I spelled that correctly). It will be my first one there. I took a look at the Gospel reading for the next three Sundays, and it looks like there are several themes to them all. As a Deacon, I am privileged to be able to proclaim the Gospel. One of the themes takes me back to my Confirmation. We learned that Confirmation made me a soldier of Christ. I remember my sponsor, Joseph Nykiel. He was proud that I had taken his name, Joseph, as my Confirmation name. He stood behind me, and prompted me as to the process of being confirmed. Finally, the Bishop gave me a light tap on the cheek, and went to the next person kneeling at the Altar rail.

I don't remember much of the sermon at the end, but I do remember that we are supposed to be brave in the face of a persecution, and remember our final reward will be with Christ. Very fortunate, being in this country, which I've never had to see if I could live up to the vow I took. Many of our fellow Catholics and Christians have not been so lucky through the years.

Persecutions have been over a large part of the world, and continue to this day, especially in the Middle East and in Europe. We have seen people brutally killed for their faith. Let us support all who face terror, pain, and even death for the Faith Christ gave us.

reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew

Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

A Note From the Pastor!

Today we return to Ordinary Time, which is really a time for us to grow and mature in our faith. This growth and maturation should be our 'ordinary' in our lives. Let us all then undertake this task each and every day. Remember, to help in this, we also have Mass on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
