Entrance Hymn

V. Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength.

R. The Lord your God shall you fear; Him shall you serve, and by His name shall you swear.

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Exodus 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments. "You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain. "Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy. "Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

The Third Sunday of Lent is here, and we are still in Florida, enjoying the beautiful weather, and the company of our friends Jan and Dean Preston. This morning, Tuesday (which is the day I am writing this, actually typing on the computer. (This would make Sister Ermilda proud, as it proves that she did not waste her time teaching typing class) Oops, lost my train of thought.

Let's start over again.

We've been here at St. Mary's by the Sea for three Sundays now, and we enjoy meeting with the congregation here very much. As I said before, the last year has been hard on the congregation, with more people getting ill than usual, ten times more than the previous year. The fact that none of us are getting any younger may have something to do with it. These last few Gospel readings are following a theme, and leading up to the Passion of the Lord.

As we know, Isaiah is one of the great prophets in the Old Testament, with more than 20 prophecies to his name, and all that were listed came true. They covered everything from the birth of Christ through His death and resurrection. I always try to have a homily ready, even though Father John, (Fr. Berry, that is,) chooses to do one, as he is delivering this Sunday.

It's already Thursday, and we are driving over fifty miles to Lakeland, Florida for the best strawberry shortcake in the world. Maybe I can get a picture of it (actually, Liz will take the picture), I can send it out. It is as good as or better than the shortcakes in the army. DELICIOUS.

Psalm

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Psalm 19)

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel Acclamation

V. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of Endless Glory.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of Endless Glory.

V. God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of Endless Glory.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

A Note From the Pastor!

We are in our third week of Lent, so let us continue our path of conversion as we journey toward Holy Week and the Passion of our Lord. Also, join us at 5 PM Wednesday for the Stations of the Cross.

Have a blessed week!
