

Parish Information

Regarding Communion: If you believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament and have been prepared for reception, you are invited to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion is placed on the tongue. If you have any questions regarding Communion (or blessings), or would like to inquire about membership or envelopes, please ask Fr. John or call the rectory number listed on the front.

Restrooms are located in the Parish Hall.

School of Christian Living: Following the 10:30 Mass, Labor Day to Memorial Day.

Marriage Arrangements: Should be made at least six months in advance; at least one year for non-parishioners.

Baptism Arrangements: Should be made at least two weeks prior to the ceremony, except in emergencies.

Hall Rental: For information on renting the hall, call (313) 286-5130 or go to <http://www.oursaviorpncc.com/Hall-Rental.html>

Please contact the rectory immediately for any emergencies, hospitalizations, sickness or death. Due to the new HIPAA laws, we have no way of finding out if you are in the hospital unless a family member notifies the rectory. We highly encourage this practice.

Individual Confessions are heard by appointment.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God. On the following Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth." The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I just did it, messed up because I forgot to save what I was writing. I had the whole first paragraph done, and hit a button and everything evaporated. So I am starting over. This is really very difficult, as MY mind (what there is of it) WAS ALREADY A PARAGRAPH AHEAD, SO HERE GOES.

In reading over this Sunday's Gospel, I noticed that it was just one paragraph. What struck me about it were six words, {I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE}. I know that since we were in grade school, we learned that there is one God, and that in this one God are three persons. I know that this is so, but beyond our fathoming how this can be.

I can look at myself, and see that there are many things that I can claim to be. A son, a father, a grandfather, a husband, a Deacon, a brother, a retired die maker, etc. But I can only be one thing in one place doing a single thing at a time. I cannot be a grandfather up North, a son in Florida, a husband in California, and so forth all at the same time. I am all these things, but not all at the same time.

God can. He is not restricted in any way. He was there before time began, He was there to create all fifteen billion years ago, He will be there when everything ends. That is some heavy STUFF.

Here in this Gospel reading, Christ says "I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE." I BELIEVE Him.

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

Rev. 7:9, 14-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. “For this reason they stand before God’s throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

Jn 10:27-30

Jesus said: “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

As we celebrate the Third Sunday of Easter, we continue our celebration we began April 21, the Resurrection of Christ. We are fortunate to be an Easter People, with an opportunity to join Christ forever in the Afterlife. Let's us continue our celebration, and thanksgiving, for Christ's gift to us... the possibility of Eternal Life!

Have a blessed week!

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Laura Pearce, friend of the Parish.

Avocado Pizza

2 avocados - peeled, pitted and diced
1 tbsp chopped cilantro
1 clove garlic, sliced
1 tbsp lime juice, or to taste
salt to taste

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Spread pizza dough onto a greased pizza pan and bake in preheated oven for 20 minutes.
2. In a food processor, combine the avocados, cilantro, and garlic. Puree while adding lime juice and salt to taste. Cover, and set aside.
3. Spread the avocado mixture thickly over the top of the baked pizza crust, then arrange chicken and tomatoes on top. Sprinkle with cheese, and season lightly with cayenne pepper.
4. Return topped pizza to the oven and cook for about 5 more minutes, or until the cheese has just melted and the crust is lightly toasted.
