A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 14:21b-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps. 145)

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

Rev. 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her hus-

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I've sprayed for weeds and grass twice now, and finally I can see that the herbicide is taking effect.

The first time, I used a ground clearing chemical, which is supposed to be good for one year. When I checked a week later, all I saw was the ground cover I was trying to eliminate had increased in size and spread. So, I went back to my original recipe. When I checked on Wednesday, finally looked like I was winning. Must LOVE all the claims that new products come out with, but you just got to try like I did.

That reminds me of the subject of today's sermon. Which just happens to be love. We all know what love is, do we not. But I wanted to see what the dictionary says about love, so naturally, I got my tablet (no more dictionary) and asked it "DEFINE LOVE". What I got in return was the definition of Lust, not love. I guess I'll have to keep this tablet separated from my computer and my other tablets.

Deep affection, fondness, tenderness, intimacy, endearment, are all synonyms for love. All of these words apply to the feelings that Christ has for all humanity. The greatest love that a person can have is to give his life for another. Christ did this, he gave his life for us all, and gave us an example of what true love is. We can use the example that Christ left for us, in how we interact with other people. Soldiers, policemen, firemen all put their lives on the line for us. We should try to spread a "little love" among all the people we interact with, and set an example for others to follow.

band. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.” The One who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

Coming off of last week's triple celebration of Good Shepherd Sunday, Mother's Day and Eli's First Communion, we return to the 5th Sunday of Easter. As such, we continue our Easter celebration through Pentecost. He is Risen, He is Risen indeed!

Have a blessed week!
