A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Deacon's Dialogue
By Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

What a week. I drove to Mundelein, Illinois for a three day retreat. Spent the days discussing our situation and of course, prayer. We had Bishop Mack as the Retreat Master, and he kept us pretty well on subject. Truthfully, the situation with our church is not the best that it could possibly be. What happened?

I have to use my own family as an example, and try to see just what is going on. We were raised as Roman Catholic, my four brothers and one sister. We went to church every Sunday, most of the Holy Days of Obligation, went to Catholic Schools, first Resurrection in East Detroit, then to St.

Stanislaus, and finally to St. Andrew High School in West Detroit. Along the way, I went to Orchard Lake St. Mary's for the ninth grade. Then St. Andrew to finish up till grade twelve. All of us graduated from St Andrew. So what happened?

St Andrew is now closed, and has been since 2008, after being active for 88 years. As I said, I am using my family experience. For the first fifty years, the work situation stayed very stable around St. Andrew. Ford, GM, Chrysler, and their suppliers provided work for the families that attended St. Andrew and the churches around it, including Our Savior on Golgotha, PNCC. The boys and girls graduated High School, some went to college, some joined the military, but eventually all found work near the churches. They married mostly locally, and continued worship at the church they were used to.

World War II and Korea interfered, but mainly that is how it was. Then came the fifties and sixties.

A reading from the First Letter of St. John.

1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-15

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

This is the Word of the Lord

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John.

Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Prayer of St. Michael

*Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

A Note From the Pastor!

Today is Pentecost, the day that the Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles and the Birthday of the Christian Church. Let us celebrate this miracle of the sending of the Third Person of the Trinity on this very special day!

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
