A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 1:12-14

After Jesus had been taken up to heaven the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they entered the city they went to the upper room where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

A reading from the First letter of St. Peter.

1 Peter 4:13-16

Beloved: Rejoice to the extent that you share in the sufferings of Christ, so that when his glory is revealed you may also rejoice exultantly. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let no one among you be made to suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as an intriguer. But whoever is made to suffer as a Christian should not be ashamed but glorify God because of the name.

Deacon's Dialogue
Deacon Richard Kasprzak

Wednesday morning, watching the aftermath of the bombing in England. There is something scary going on, with the new immigrants from the Middle East. It seems that the troubled is not with the immigrants but with their children. The family came from Libya, and the kid grew up in England, went to school there, and learned everything from the British viewpoint. And still, it was the kids of the family who caused the deaths and the wounding of so many in Manchester. Europe has an open door policy, and once you are in, you can travel all over without any controls. I see some changes but there is no control over children born there or raised there. Let's all of us pray for the people who have been killed, and pray that the wounded ones recover.

Liz had another surgery on Tuesday, and we go back to the doctor on Friday to check how the skin graft is doing. It is going to be a long road for her to recover full, but with the grace of God, this too shall pass for her.

We shall be going North for the weekend, I will be taking my grand granddaughter North on Friday after school, Liz may or may not go depending on the outcome of her visit with the surgeon Friday at 10:30 A.M. I will be back for Mass on Sunday, and maybe pick up David on the way back North (iffy). Sure is a busy retirement...

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. John

John 17:1-11

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that your son may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work that you gave me to do. Now glorify me, Father, with you, with the glory that I had with you before the world began. "I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you gave me is from you, because the words you gave to me I have given to them, and they accepted them and truly understood that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for the ones you have given me, because they are yours, and everything of mine is yours and everything of yours is mine, and I have been glorified in them. And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to you."

A Note From the Pastor!

This week we celebrate the 7th Sunday of Easter, and next week we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost. It is a tradition to wear red on Pentecost Sunday, so keep this in mind for next weekend. I will be back with you next Sunday, and I thank Deacon Richard for his assistance during this time as we struggle to insure that all the faithful of our area have access to Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John

Clean Sweep

This year, we are asking everyone, if you see something on the Church property that needs to be done (weeding, etc...) please take an hour or two and do it. We need everyone's help to keep the grounds looking nice, so your volunteer time is greatly appreciated. We have found that having a weekly time did not fit into people's schedules. If you need any special equipment from the garage, contact Fr. John, Deacon Richard or Suzanne Sniezek and they will open it for you.

Memorial Day

Tomorrow is Memorial Day. The Church office will be closed, but emergencies can always be called in and will be responded to appropriately. Let us take the time to remember those who gave all to help us retain the freedoms we enjoy!

Newsletter

Due to an unexpected complication experienced by our editor-in-training Elizabeth Kasprzak, the publication of the Spirit of Our Savior has been slightly delayed. Production should be completed soon. Thank you for your patience.

Parish Committee Meeting

The June Parish Committee Meeting will be held on June 20 at 7 PM in the hall. All committee members are expected to attend, and all parishioners are invited to attend this meeting.

Deacon Service

Today Deacon Richard will be celebrating a Deacon Service while Fr. John is assisting at All Saints in Sterling Heights. Thank you for understanding as we try to accommodate the faithful of the entire Northeast Seniorate and insure that they have access to Our Savior in the Eucharist.
