

Parish Information

Regarding Communion: If you believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament and have been prepared for reception, you are invited to receive Holy Communion. Holy Communion is placed on the tongue. If you have any questions regarding Communion (or blessings), or would like to inquire about membership or envelopes, please ask Fr. John or call the rectory number listed on the front.

Restrooms are located in the Parish Hall.

School of Christian Living: Following the 10:30 Mass, Labor Day to Memorial Day.

Marriage Arrangements: Should be made at least six months in advance; at least one year for non-parishioners.

Baptism Arrangements: Should be made at least two weeks prior to the ceremony, except in emergencies.

Hall Rental: For information on renting the hall, call (313) 286-5130 or go to <http://www.oursaviorpncc.com/Hall-Rental.html>

Please contact the rectory immediately for any emergencies, hospitalizations, sickness or death. Due to the new HIPAA laws, we have no way of finding out if you are in the hospital unless a family member notifies the rectory. We highly encourage this practice.

Individual Confessions are heard by appointment.

V. May the God of peace furnish you with all that is good, that you may do His will.

R. May He carry out in you what is pleasing to Him through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever [and ever]. Amen.

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel.

Ezekiel 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Remember Your mercies, O Lord. (Psalm 25)

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians.

Philippians 2:1-11

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

AAAAAAAAAAAhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh.

It's October, and here I am, waiting at home and trying to recover from this gall bladder attack. I am doing my breathing exercises, which of course are not getting any easier. I shall start doing a little walking outside, and try to get my mobility back. Amazing how a week in hospital, mostly laying in bed and sitting quietly while trying to get some strength back, weakens a person. I am still trying to locate a part of my body that does not hurt, and once in a while I think I've found it, but when I try to repeat the process, I find a false alarm it hurts.

I have sung the praises of my wife and women in general more than once here in this column. I must repeat them once again, with a true amazement at what they are capable off, and how they are like the Eveready bunny, just going and going and going and-----. Without my wife, I truly believe that I would have it much harder than what I do have. I have been able to carry my weight through life, but right now, with luck, I can make it far enough to get a fresh glass of water if she helps me up.

And I must say, that the nurses and the nurses aids who work at the hospitals also do yeoman work, going out of their way to make a hospital stay bearable.

I must relate one little story, which took place on Tuesday last week. I was under some heavy meds, and woke out of a sound sleep at about 3AM. I lay there wondering where I was, and happened to look outside my room through the open door. I have never seen so many zombies, all walking slowly, carrying something in their hands. I figured I was done for, and passed out.

KEEP YOU FEARS TO YOURSELF, BUT SHARE YOUR COURAGE WITH OTHERS. ~ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not, ' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

A Note From the Pastor!

As we begin the month of October, let us be focused on our families. Next Sunday in the PNCC is the Solemnity of the Christian Family. As such, we should be ever mindful of not only our immediate family, but also our Parish family and our community family.

Have a blessed week!

Our Savior Recipe Section

This week's recipe is by Mrs. Nan Cramer.

GRILLED PEPPERY TOP ROUND STEAK

1 beef Top Round Steak, cut 3/4 inch thick (about 1 pound)
1 pound asparagus, trimmed
1 teaspoon olive oil
3 tablespoons shredded Parmesan cheese
Salt
Marinade:
1/4 cup red wine vinegar
2 tablespoons olive oil
3/4 tsp. each Garlic Powder and Onion Powder
2 teaspoons steak seasoning blend

Combine Marinade ingredients in medium bowl. Place beef Steak and marinade in food-safe plastic bag; turn steak to coat. Close bag securely and marinate 1-6 hours or as long as overnight, turning occasionally. Remove steak from marinade; discard marinade. Toss asparagus with oil. Place steak in center of grill at medium heat arrange asparagus around steak. Grill steak, covered, 10 to 11 minutes for medium rare (145°F) doneness, turning occasionally. Grill asparagus 6 to 10 minutes or until crisp-tender, turning occasionally. Immediately sprinkle cheese over asparagus. Carve steak into thin slices. Season with salt, as desired. Serve with asparagus.
