A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Exodus 17:8-13

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Joshua, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand." So Joshua did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset. And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Thanks be to God.

A reading from the Second letter of St. Paul to Timothy.

2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

Beloved: Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work. I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; con-

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Liz and I are away this week and next, stopping in Florida to drop off our tropical plants (and enjoy some sun and beach time) and travel to the Synod in Pennsylvania for Friday the 25th. Liz is our representative, and I am just along for the ride. I almost stayed home, as Liz has driven to Florida by herself before, but the sunshine is just too much temptation.

This Sunday's Gospel is a touch confusing for me, and I could not decide just what I should concentrate on. Sometimes when I read a Gospel in preparation, I focus on something quickly, but not this time. Jesus seems to deliberately try to confuse me, make me work with my mind. I finally decided to look at some commentaries about this Gospel, and one word stood out – persistence. I read the Gospel again, and I have to agree, persistence. In spite of all roadblocks, the widow lady kept asking for something, and finally got what she justly deserved. Asking God for something may require you to ask numerous times, and He may reward you. If you truly want something, keep asking. But in the end, He knows what we need and is good for us.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

On this Heritage Sunday, let us remember where we came from, who our ancestors were, and most especially how this can help us better understand those who are different from us, and can help us lead them to Our Savior, Jesus Christ!

Have a blessed week!
