Mass Schedule

Sunday Mass at 10:30 AM

Daily Mass: Tues., Thurs. 5:30 PM

Wed. Noon

Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Contemporary Rite p. 63
Penitential Rite, p. 66
Entrance Hymn

V. Seek the Lord, all you humble of the earth, who have observed His law; seek justice, seek humility

R. For the Lord takes delight in His people, honors the poor with victory.

V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Sirach.

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God. What is too sublime for you, seek not, into things beyond your strength search not. The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs, and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise. Water quenches a flaming fire, and alms atone for sins.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor. (Psalm 68)

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Hebrews.

Heb 12:18-19, 22-24

Brothers and sisters: You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them. No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

On earth, as it is in heaven. Just let's think about this a little bit, or, maybe, a "lot of bit." My Darn things are sometimes smarter than I am, or think they are. (Do I need a comma after the let's?)

In heaven, we all know who runs the place – God, of course. On this earth, we know that the same rules are supposed to apply, because God gave us rules to live by, refer to Moses coming down from the mountain with the stone tablets. That coming down the mountain, carrying sixty or more pounds of stone, could be dangerous. One little trip, and it's an oops, and a trip back up the hill. Anyhow, once Moses came down, he had to get people to live by those rules. For more than 2 thousand years, we here on earth have been trying, with some success, to live according to those rules, and there are just ten of them. These rules are the will of God.

God's will is followed in heaven, and it is the word, the will of Christ, that we follow the lead of heaven, here on earth. That is easy sounding, but we find it truly difficult to follow here on earth. We here on earth have a gift from God, called FREE WILL. This enables us to use our brain to decide our course of action in what we do, how we act, etc. Hopefully, we make the correct choices most, if not all of, the time. Being human, I know that I fail in my choices more than what I should. I get irritated, annoyed even angry more that I should. Tough to admit, but true. Liz will vouch that I am far from perfect. Free will is what allows this to happen. We all have it, we all make choices, good or not so good. Just a quick aside. Is there free will in heaven? Ever hear of Lucifer?

I started clearing out the tree which fell on Our Savior's fence, but had to stop. The bees, or hornets, told me to stop.!!! Fortunately, my left facial cheek stung for ONLY a few hours. It could have been another cheek.

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. Take my yoke upon you, says the Lord, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, ‘My friend, move up to a higher position.’ Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Then he said to the host who invited him, “When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

September has arrived, and tomorrow is the arrival of Labor Day. Let us never forget those who suffered to get us the working conditions we have today. We are forever grateful to those pioneers of the labor movement who fought for human rights in the workplace.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
