V. Glory be...

R. As it was...

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos.

Amos 8:4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! “When will the new moon be over,” you ask, “that we may sell our grain, and the Sabbath, that we may display the wheat? We will diminish the ephah, add to the shekel, and fix our scales for cheating! We will buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!” The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done!

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual

V. You shall not keep two differing weights in you bag, one large, the other small; nor shall you keep two different measures in your house, one large and one small.

R. Everyone who is dishonest in any of these matters is an abomination to the Lord, your God.

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to Timothy.

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all. This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle — I am speaking the truth, I am not lying —,

Deacon’s Dialogue

Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

I know that it’s hard to believe, but even Deacons can make an error. Here I thought “SPOJNIA” was a verb, and I find out that I was incorrect. The word Spojnia is a noun, and it translates into the Polish word for union. The verb form of spojnia is wspojnie, which translates as together. Which brings us to this Sunday, which is Spojnia Sunday. The Polish language has two of several letters, and the letter ‘u’ has two forms in the Polish language. My computer does not show the proper form of one of the letters, but it is the letter O with a comma over it. [End of language lesson.]

I went to high school at St. Andrew on McGraw, and also to St. Andrew church. I was not even aware that Our Savior was just a few blocks away, and had no idea that many of many classmates did not attend St. Andrew church on Sundays, not that it makes any difference. It is eerie, in a way, that both St. Andrew and Our Savior in Detroit are no longer there. We are a bit ahead, as our church was relocated to Dearborn Heights.

We are still holding on, but not by very much. My daughters do not go to church at all, and the grandkids, my brothers’ kids included, all do not seem to want inclusion in any church. Why???????

Think about this. Is it our fault?

Gospel Acclamation

V. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

V. Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, “A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, ‘What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.’ The steward said to himself, ‘What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.’ He called in his master’s debtors one by one. To the first he said, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He replied, ‘One hundred measures of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.’ Then to another the steward said, ‘And you, how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘One hundred kors of wheat.’ The steward said to him, ‘Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.’ And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. “For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to You, Jesus Christ.

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor
