A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos.

Amos 6:1, 4-7

Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion! Lying upon beds of ivory, stretched comfortably on their couches, they eat lambs taken from the flock, and calves from the stall! Improvising to the music of the harp, like David, they devise their own accompaniment. They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the best oils; yet they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph! Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession, to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only rul-

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Boy, did I ever get fooled. When I looked up today's Gospel, the first thing I saw was the name "Lazarus". I had forgotten that there was more than the one Lazarus in the Bible, immediately thinking of the one Jesus raised from the dead. That Lazarus, who was Martha's brother, belonged to a fairly well-off family, whereas this one was poor, begging by a wealthy man's home. But enough of the undead Lazarus.

This parable actually brings to mind, other parables of Christ where we are encouraged to share in the goodness of God towards us, with others for whom God has not provided the wealth that the lucky ones get. Why God gives some of us on earth lots (no pun meant) and others little, only God knows. But being God, we can be sure there is something behind whatever His purpose is. I know it's beyond me.

Liz sent out the paperwork for the upcoming synod concerning the election of Bishops. We still have to make reservations in Scranton. That is next on our agenda.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 16:19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees: “There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried, and from the netherworld, where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me. Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering torment in these flames.' Abraham replied, 'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.' He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they too come to this place of torment.' But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'”

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

As we enter the Autumn season, let us pray for all of those who have fallen away from the faith, those who do not know Jesus, and all of us that we can bring the Good News of the Gospel to all we meet through our words and deeds.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
