A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped; you were too strong for me, and you triumphed. All the day I am an object of laughter; everyone mocks me. Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message; the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day. I say to myself, I will not mention him, I will speak in his name no more. But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Psalm 62)

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Romans 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Deacon's Dialogue
By: Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

What a week for our country, just devastation in the South, with the state of Texas being brought down like we have not seen in years. The hurricane making three landfalls, intensifying each time before it comes ashore, and just dumping water by the tubful upon ground that was waterlogged so much the water had no place to go. And when it finally moves away from Texas, it hit Louisiana which is low country, and also dumping rain there. It is now moving towards the North and East, and looking at the forecast, we will just escape it here in Michigan.

And guess what, there is another one in the Atlantic which is forecast to become a major hurricane also, with the tracks showing that it will either hit the East coast of the United States, or go into the Gulf of Mexico and maybe follow Harvey into Texas also. Some praying is indicated here, and if you can spare a little bit, the relief people could use some money also. God bless and watch out for all the people who are being affected by this natural disaster.

At home, I am still recovering from the ten days in Florida with Liz, my daughter Veronica, and the Grandkids, David and Paige. Funny how you can plan on spending a certain amount of money for a trip, and I always forget, it will exceed your planned expenses. It was a very nice trip, and the kids loved it.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew

Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."
