A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 31:31-34

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them, and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and kinsmen how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

1 John 4:17-21

In this is love brought to perfection among us, that we have confidence on the day of judgment because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear because fear has to do with punishment, and so one who fears is

Deacon's Dialogue
Rev. Mr. Richard Kasprzak

Family problems. There is almost nothing worse than having to deal with family problems. I am sitting here Wednesday night, trying to figure out the problem that I have. Funny how it can work out, that there is sometimes no good answer to the problem. And irrespective of how we try to resolve it, no satisfactory outcome is going to happen. Some situations are like that – no matter what you say or do, someone will get hurt, or angered, or cause a rift in a family. It is especially worse if a long period of time has passed, and every ones recollections of the same problem differs.

It seems that oftentimes, dealing with strangers is easier than dealing with family, as it is almost impossible not to choose sides. It certainly seems like finding a stranger along a road is a much easier problem to resolve. You just do what is best for that individual, and not worry about hurt feelings. You just go ahead, and resolve the situation to the best of your ability.

I did some more work on that downed tree, cutting it, and then towing those branches over to next door. I found where that sting came from – the biggest nest I have ever seen, still active. I think I've done enough.

not yet perfect in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, “I love God,” but hates his brother, he is a liar; for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. This is the commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

V. This I command you: love one another

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test him and said, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read it?” He said in reply, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” He replied to him, “You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.” But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, ‘Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.’ Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, “The one who treated him with mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Prayer of St. Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Note From the Pastor

September has arrived, and tomorrow is the arrival of Labor Day. Let us never forget those who suffered to get us the working conditions we have today. We are forever grateful to those pioneers of the labor movement who fought for human rights in the workplace.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. John
